My view is this: There are certain things in which the state is obviously incapable of asserting as useful power as useful control, as the national government. In these the national government. ernment. In these the national government should control. There are many places in which the protection of the rights of the people belongs to the states, and in those the state should have full swing. In both cases I deprecate all efforts to raise this quarrel, because in the muddy water is a refuge for the man who wants to escape all control. I believe in co-operation between the states and nation."

WATER WANTED FOR POWER. To secure water with which to fur-nish electric power to Park city and other near-by towns, the Knight Power company of Provo yesterday applied to the state engineer for permission to appropriate fifty cubic feet of the wars of the north and east forks of the uchesne river. The water will be used to supply power for electric lighting and propelling machinery in Summit county, through the Woodland and Murdoch plants of this company.
